Cookie Policy

Last updated: 09.12.2025

We use cookies and similar tracking technologies to improve your experience on our websites and to manage user preferences. This Cookie Policy explains the types of cookies we use, why we use them, and how you can manage your preferences.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your device when you visit a website. They help the website remember your actions and preferences (such as language, region, or login details) over time, making your next visit easier and more tailored to you.

Types of Cookies We Use

1. Essential

These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They help ensure the safety of your interaction with the site by enabling security measures such as:

- XSRF token
- Safety Caravel cookies, protecting your data from threats like cross-site request forgery
- Usercentrics Consent Management Platform (CMP) - Usercentrics displays our cookie banner, collects and stores consents, and activates or blocks scripts accordingly. It stores information, and banner version.

2. Functional

These cookies enable the site to remember your language and region settings, providing a personalized experience during your visit. They also memorize your choices related to our demo feature, allowing you to continue from where you left off.

3. Analytics

We use Google Analytics to track user behaviour on the site. This helps us understand how visitors interact with our content, enabling us to improve the user experience. These cookies do not collect personal data but help us understand user trends.

4. Marketing

These technologies are used by advertisers to serve ads that are relevant to your interests.

Managing Cookies

We use Usercentrics CMP to ensure that cookies and similar technologies are activated only according to your preferences. When you first visit our website, a cookie banner appears that allows you to customize your settings. You may change or withdraw your consent at any time by accessing Privacy Settings available on our website.

Third-Party Cookies

Some of the cookies we use are placed by third-party services, like Google Analytics that measure traffic and engagement on websites and mobile apps across devices using customizable reports. We recommend you review their privacy policies to understand how they handle your information.

Changes to This Policy

We may update our Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in technology or legal requirements. Please check this page regularly to stay informed about our practices.
